THE CHICAGO STUDIO

The Illinois School of Architecture created the Chicago Studio in response to a desire for our students to have a learning experience in the city of Chicago. Set in the historic Santa Fe (now Motorola) Building at 224 S. Michigan Avenue, the Fall 2016 Chicago Studio in our own 2000 square foot urban lab on the 13th floor of VOA Associates offers an opportunity for an extraordinary experience for our full-time graduate students. The Chicago Studio enables our students to experience the best of both the academy and practice by regularly including professionals in the studio experience.

All students applying to Chicago Studio will be considered for a Scholarship. If accepted and chosen for the Scholarship, students will be required to attend the Chicago Studio. One Scholarship will be awarded in the fall semester and one in the spring semester.

“...It was a great studio and the integrative approach to the classes allowed me to learn an incredible amount. The opportunity to network and connect with professionals was truly invaluable. ...It is going to and already is making a huge difference in starting our careers.” –Kristin

“It makes me feel like I’m really inside VOA, in that we have our own space. It’s comfortable to work here. Because the location is right beside Millennium Park, it’s convenient to other parts of the city.” –Liwei

“The highlight is being able to experience and explore Chicago in all its facets.” –Andrew
