PROJECT TWO:

Essential Dwelling: The Archon Prize

NINE-WEEK INDIVIDUAL PROJECT

SPONSOR: A. Richard Williams, FAIA, Professor Emeritus
LOCATION: To be determined

“All of my life I have dreamed of the essence of dwelling not just for oneself, but for all humanity – to dwell in a garden, or in a grove, or on a hill, water’s edge, or in an open space, all with a view, near or far, simply, humbly, poetically like Thoreau or Walden Pond, joining as well in the joy, pride and well-being of community life.”

-- A. Richard Williams, FAIA, Professor Emeritus & and Sponsor of Archon Prize

THE PROPOSAL: The Archon Prize is a design competition for a 1,000 sq. ft. “Essential Dwelling” on a 50’x120’ site, with interior and exterior program spaces defined by the competitor. The prize competition is limited to students enrolled in the studio. Each competitor will prepare detailed drawings and models of the building and the site for presentation to a prestigious invited jury, which will select the prizewinners at the end of the semester. First, second, and third place monetary awards will be given. Following the award announcement, a publication illustrating all of the projects will be prepared. Each enrolled student will receive two copies of the publication.
